They were arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Aloncie and Formosa, who saw them together on Eighth avenue near Fortieth street, and followed them.

They saw the crooks enter the house at 781 Eighth avenue, and when they came out and separated, each running in a different direction, the detectives in a different direction, the detectives pursued and arrested them.

It was found that they had attempted burglary, but had been frightened away. Upon the men was found a complete outfit of burglars' tools.

The prisoners have both spent twenty out of the last twenty-five years in prison and neither has been long at liberty.

IRON HALL SHORT $16,000.

McBride Blamed Only for Bad Bookkeeping Macbeth Exonerated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 10 .- The of Honor to examine into the condition of the books of ex-Supreme Treasurer
McBride has made a report and finds that a shortage of nearly $16,000 exists.

The Committee chose to call it a claim against McBride, and that it is the result of merely bad bookkeeping. The report exonerates E. D. Macbeth, late cashier for McIsride, of all responsibility.

Floyd Again Remanded.

late cashler for McBride, of all respon-sibility.

The shortage, according to the books of the order, dates back eight years. In 1885 a committee which had been inves-tigating McBride's accounts, reported them to be correct.

This will bring up the question of the liability for the amount of the shortage.

McBride failed of re-election at the Convention of the Supreme efficers recently believed.
